

Biofruit Trading

The company

Location Berlin, Germany

Job function Sales and Marketing

Trainee's profile

Languages required Good knowledge of English and German (mandatory)

Computer skills Good Microsoft Office knowledge and other softwares

Required skills Good communication skills; loyalty, desire to learn and to improve everyday

Job description

Job content Biofruit is a small German company, upcoming and dynamic. Since 2001 with enduring experience in the citrus fruit field, Biofruit has been specialised in the commercialisation of the Washington Navel oranges from Ribera di Sicilia (Ribera, Sicily, Italy) under the PDO name (Protected Designation of Origin) and mark "Riberella". We would like to exchange ideas, experience and to train motivated applicants in the sale/ international marketing sector to fit in our office staff.

Job content

The purpose of the job is to assist the newly established La Dante Maputo Association in teaching Italian language as a foreign language at different levels as recognised by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages; assist the Association in establishing partnerships with private/public schools, opening new courses of Italian language in the city of Maputo and surrounding areas. The trainee will help organising cultural events to promote the Italian culture in Mozambique and cultural exchanges between Italians living in the country and Mozambicans.

Main duties:

- Potential customers research in all Europe
- Markets research
- CRM
- Dispatch of orders
- Sales/buying
- Involvement in new market strategy
- New marketing
- Language translations,
- Administration work.

What we offer:

- Sales and international marketing full immersion
- Languages in Office: English, German, Italian and Polish
- Young and international workplace
- Office location: Berlin center (new office Handjerystr 48, 12161 Berlin)
- We guarantee an intensive experience, not marginal
- In the end of a successful Internship we offer a reference letter
- Biofruit is also in agreements with some Italian Universities, so it is possible to convert job hours into University Formative Credits (UFC)